

What if the sound of all Ornäs birch in all the municipalities of this little land called svedala could sing about the water?

A conversation in and around trees leading continued tree conversations with Robert.

Barkcloth making is an ancient craft of the Baganda people who live in the Buganda kingdom in southern Uganda. Traditionally, craftsmen of the Ngonge clan, headed by a kaboggoza, the hereditary chief craftsman have been manufacturing bark cloth for the Baganda royal family and the rest of the community.

Connecting it back to Öland and why it's DURING VICTORIA DAYS, ÖLAND IS TRANSFORMED INTO A MEETING PLACE THAT WANTS TO INSPIRE PHYSICAL ACTIVITY AND A HEALTHY LIFESTYLE.

The class mutant Frei that I am doing a podcast with. Sound again, yes!

Deep Listening

Listening

Listening