

The humpless camel

The photo shows a costume from a previous performance. I could have been a camel in it, but despite all the work that was put into it, it didn't end up being my costume for the performance. In the photo, it lies sadly in the corner. I try to wear it often during training sessions so that it will have a future. People have asked me for it several times. I won't give it away.

Mate Czako - tier9_ind - FORGÓ COLLECTIVE - Hungary